

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
DATE: October 19, 2012

Fort Hood to host Pink Heals tour

FORT HOOD, Texas -- Fort Hood's Carl R. Darnall Medical Center will host the PINK HEALS tour 11:30 a.m. - 2 p.m. October 23rd at the Clear Creek Post Exchange.

The Pink Heals Tour consists of firefighters dressed in pink turnout gear, driving pink fire trucks in support of women and their battle against all forms of cancer. Each year the "Guardians of the Ribbon" drive across country to deliver a message of hope, love, support and awareness to those battling cancer.

Cancer fighters and survivors are invited out to sign the truck.

Media who wish to cover the event should register here. The gate time is 11 a.m. at the Fort Hood visitor's center south-side parking lot.

For more information contact:
Carl R. Darnall Army Medical Center
Public Affairs Office
(254) 553-1870
Capt. Erin Cooksley
Fort Hood, TX 76544
erin.m.cooksley@amedd.army.mil